Well, it's just a bit of fun really! Anyone can enter, though if you're under 16 please get an adult to do it. Tell all your friends, enemies, relatives, colleagues, neighbours, and acquaintances.

The idea is to encourage long-time residents to look around the new parts of Portishead, and new residents to explore the old.

You'll need a mixture of local knowledge, googling, and guesswork. Some will require a walk, so plan it into your daily exercise régime.
